

Is my group eligible to apply to CIF via West Sussex Crowd?

Are you a ...	Yes	No	Maybe	Comments
Community group, society or club	✓			Examples include: scout groups, luncheon clubs, games/music/arts & crafts societies plus health & fitness clubs.
Local charity	✓
National charity			✓	Yes, if able to demonstrate benefit at local level.
Residents' Association	✓
Village Hall Committee	✓
Individual		✓		Yes, if the project creator is able to provide designated bank details with the project as the named account holder. No, if the project is proposing to benefit a single person.
Sports groups	✓			All groups are welcome.
Political party, Organisation or Pressure group		✓
Religious organisation			✓	Yes, where funding benefits the wider community. No, if people are required to participate in religious activity in order to benefit.
Privately-run for profit business			✓	Yes, if not solely for profit and likely to provide significant community benefit – such as local history/tourism guides.
Previous grant holder			✓	Yes, if for a new project. No, if you have not completed the evaluation and monitoring process.
Town/parish council or other government-funded organisation			✓	Only if project cannot be funded through precept.
Youth group			✓	Yes, if the project does not duplicate services already funded by West Sussex County Council.

If eligible, what are we able to apply for?

Applying for...	Yes	No	Maybe	Comments
Purchase of equipment	✓
Rent		✓		However, you're encouraged to crowdfund for this purpose via West Sussex Crowd .
Retrospective payment		✓
Venue or equipment hire			✓	Yes, if able to deliver a sustainable outcome or for one-off events.
Staffing costs			✓	One-off training/professional services may be considered, however future applications for the same purpose would be ineligible. No, for ongoing staffing costs.
Annual or ongoing events			✓	May be considered where it can demonstrate ongoing community or economic benefit.
Building works, renovation and repair			✓	Yes, if for a specific project. No, for general maintenance.
Advertising/promotion			✓	Yes, if for a community event or project. No, for general advertising costs.